

Alien Invaders!

The Cuban Treefrog (Osteopilus septentrionalis) is an unwelcomed guest. This animal was accidentally imported from Cuba and found Florida to its liking.

Unfortunately, they compete with (and will eat!) our native tree frogs. This frog is characterised by its large toe pads and big, bulging eyes.